- Is able to drive through whole school changes and can lead by example.
- Is a good communicator who can build strong relationships with our children, their families, staff, and work in the wider community.
- Recognises that each day matters to every child.
- Is committed to inclusion and able to support children with bespoke needs in a mainstream classroom and share their good practice.
- Understands the benefits and importance of active learning and will engage positively with our outdoor learning approach.

- Demonstrates creativity in their approach to teaching and learning.

We can offer you:
